CPCA NEWS: Peace Officers Welcome

The CPCA is proud to announce that we're expanding our Association to invite all "Peace Officers and Auxiliary Members" to join us in our curling fraternity. Any person who is designated a Peace Officer or Auxiliary Officer with at least two years of service within any Provincial or Territorial Association in which they reside. This may include but is not restricted to Canadian Border Services Agency (CBSA), Customs Officers, Correctional Officers, and, Conservation and Fisheries Officers. These are to be determined by the National Executive on a case by case submission. Are members in good standing within the Provincial or Territorial Association in which they reside. Officer with a minimum of 15 years service in the employ of their agency. These persons must play on a team with a minimum of two regular member Police Officers that are in good standing with their Provincial or Territorial Association. This change in our associations constitution will be reviewed after 2 years.

The 2011 NLPCA Benefit Hockey Game held at Mile One Stadium was a huge success. The Police all-stars played the NL all-stars. It was a competitive game with lots of fun and skits for entertainment. $2500.00 was presented to the Newfoundland and Labrador Special Olympics.

As well as $2500.00 donated to the Tourette Syndrome Foundation of Canada. The Autism Society of NL raised $1795.00 with the 50/50 draw at the game. The Police Curling Association's total contributions to local charities is now over $169,000.

At the 2011 Canadian Police Curling Championship.

Team NL finished in tenth position with a 0 & 9 record. British Columbia are the Canadian Champs.
